TRI-LAND PROPERTIES INC. APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES

WESTCHESTER, Ill. – Tri-Land Properties Inc. has named Mary Latimer as its new director of human resources. In her new position, Latimer will direct human resources strategies and activities for the retail development and redevelopment company.

Latimer joins Tri-Land with 20 years of experience in human resources and organizational development. Most recently, Latimer spent 10 years at WHITTMANHART, a professional services company specializing in management consulting and digital advertising, in different human resources, employee development and recruiting roles. During her tenure, the company more than doubled in size and went through a public offering. Prior to that, Latimer's experience included human resources positions at Accenture, The Chicago Stock Exchange and Montgomery Ward.

Latimer is a graduate of the University of Illinois and a Senior Certified Professional in Human Resources.

Tri-Land Properties Inc. owns and manages more than 2.8 million square feet of commercial retail space, located in the Midwest, Mid-Atlantic and Southeastern regions of the country. The Westchester, Ill.-based firm is a full-service, real estate development/redevelopment company focused on the successful acquisition, development, renovation and management of community centers ranging in size from 100,000 square feet to 750,000 square feet. Tri-Land specializes in transforming aging and undervalued retail properties into dynamic commercial centers with increased value that generate steady consumer traffic and provide substantial investor returns.
